CONFIDENTIAL.

Dear Sir,

The Government have for some time past been engaged in revising the scales of salaries in the various departments of Government with a view to effect retrenchment whenever possible. Orders fixing revised scales of pay have accordingly issued already in the case of several Departments.

The revision of the pay of the Gazetted Staff of the Judicial Department was examined by Government a few days ago and the following decisions were provisionally arrived at.

| Post. | Present Scale. | Proposed Scale. |
|---|---|---|
| 1. Judges of the High Court. | ---- May continue as at present --- | |
| 2. District Judges. | | |
| 3. Subordinate Judges, (including Registrar, High Court). | 500-50-600 | 600-50/2-600 |
| 4. Munsiffs. - 1st Grade. | 250-25-450 | 250-40/2-450 |
| 2nd Grade | 150-25/2-200-25-250 | 150-25/2-250 |
| 5. Deputy Registrar. | 200-25-350 | 200-25/2-300 (If a Munsiff is appointed to this post, he may draw his grade pay) |
| 6. Government Advocate. | ---- May continue as at present ---- | |
| 7. Public Prosecutors. | | |

It may be explained that the revision proposed above is on the same lines as those adopted in the case of posts which involve similar responsibility and carry similar status in other Departments like the Revenue, Police etc.

Before issuing final orders I am desired to communicate to you the above tentative decisions and to state that Government trust that they will meet with your concurrence.

Yours sincerely,

To

H. D. C. REILLY Esq.,

Chief Justice, High Court of Mysore.
